

Beep*

10 Months of...

He shaped her for me and now He holds her back

Listen to the lovely story of Beep* and Boop* and how they met each other.
Join them through the enchanted woods on their hazardous walk to the Horizon. Then Beep* steps in a thorn! Will they reach their destination?

This everlasting Day

1. And her name is...
2. You Sweet Handsome Cool and Nice Man
3. Colonial Brunette
4. The Horizon will come to Us
5. Custom Shaped
6. This everlasting Day
7. By your side
8. Phase to Phase

And her name is...

Sweet & Lovely Beep*

Like a carpet the world unrolls
With every single step
Your silk & fine shaped feet take.

Step into these enchanted woods
Of yet uncovered wonders
Indulge this one week party

And if it pleasures you, you Sweet,
Please take my hand ;))
And if it pleasures you, you Sweetie,
Please take my hand ;))

Princesses & Queens are served in any way they want
But swing and roll, get dirty
Go as far as you can see

Let it all go through your heart,
No need to turn your head to look back
Go on.. it's your treat!

And if it pleasures you, you Sweet,
Please take my hand ;))
And if it pleasures you, you Sweetie,
So take me by the hand, and.. that's going to be a different Chapter

Though, if something might go wrong
Don't hesitate to call upon Him (see latest Testament appendix ;))

Sincerely Yours
Yours Sincerely:

Me! !! Yours! Punk Artist. Philosopher. Etc. etc.. etc...

You Sweet Handsome Cool and Nice Man

That will never be your Name
Cause...

Beep*. That's who you are!
You funny, sparkling, beautiful You.

I need a woman that stands by me Today
Don't need to say you love me.
Just sprinkle me with Sugar please!

You Sweet Handsome Cool and Nice Man!
I'm your woman.
You're my man.
I'm so happy!
You Sweet Handsome Cool and Nice Man!

Colonial Brunette

I love sweet talk, she said. Don't stop!
I asked her if she had enough.

Sweet & Lovely Beep*
Wonderful girl, Gorgeous broad
Finest and I mean Finest piece of human sculpture
Known in the West East North and South
My woman, funny tender lovely friend.

Still I sense a flavour that traveled through time all the way from the Dutch East Indies. Once before a girl claimed to be spotless. But a picture of her great grandmother unveiled her origin, That far away! Your moves are from there!

But most of all I feel great by your side you green eyed Colonial Brunette.
Have you had enough now? Or shall I go on you outrageously beautiful Bitch.

From your dearest friend

Oh Boop*!

The Horizon will come to Us

Like a spider, she tucked me in
In her cocoon. Beep
She treasures me
Opened a drawer
And put me back stage with utmost care

Life's been hard to her chewed on her, spit her out
I pass! She utters anxiously
And beyond back stage I go!

I'm in company of goodies
Long forgotten curiosities and women's little boxes
I'm her present, she wrapped herself.
You love me?
How can that be?
You know me for just a single day

What I mean love
(But please don't tell anybody)
If we go on in this direction
The Horizon will come to Us

I always knew
And pulled in the Days yet to come
I'm Bold & Brave
That's the way I am

So lets walk hand in hand
Through the ever unrolling woods
- I stepped in a thorn
- Let's settle here, Is that okay with you?

No thorn will stop us cause I'll stop the time, yes I can since I love you
Come let me soothe your wound

Sweet Sweet Beepie
You have a lovely name!
A name before the iPhone era
Remove Thorns, there is an app for that!
But I won't solve you with an app

Your beautiful face brings up the best in me
Medieval tools are my means
To abduct you princess and conquer
To get to you
To be with you.
I won't ever let you down

Custom Shaped

Beep*

I don't know who you are

Back in 19 God was in an excellent mood

A creative mood

"Today I will surpass myself!"

And He sculpted her

A stroke here

A stroke there

And with every stroke she stunned the world more and more

And He called her Beep*

Then God looked over his shoulder to 1963

And fine tuned the beautiful face accordingly

That the boy from '63

Would recognize the girl in 2016

And so Beep* & Boop* grew up separately

They each lived a 1000 lives

And they got very wise

But did this wisdom serve them well enough

To find each other after 50 years? 50 Years!

And was Beep*'s face that precisely shaped that Boop* would recognize her?

To fall for her looks, her good looks, amazing looks

And look through her green eyes straight into her soul

The boy scans her outlines

Then in a flash moment he pauses scanning

There is a match

The outlines match an ancient code deep in his DNA

As if it were a copy of a special string

A code that finally renders a name:

Beep*

The name touches him somehow

What a beautiful name

He googles her...

And what a beautiful girl

He sees her in the flesh...

Her face seems to be custom shaped

Finally they found each other

But why did this have to take 50 years?

Beep* & Boop* looked at each other dazzlingly

God spoke to them:

Go along from here and find out why you two are put together

He threw them their manuals

When they turned their backs

These fell somewhere between the Earth and the Clouds

We won't see those ever again

Beep* & Boop* had to live together without manuals from now on

How that will find its conclusion you guys will see in the next series.

Wow, that is a beautiful story Boop*!

However...

I'm not available she said. Not yet.

So that means Ever. I told myself. In my humble masculine opinion that is.

This everlasting Day

Concrete to sit on Iron to lean on
My gangways Her elevator
They lead us to this same Destination

No one told Us to come
No greater goal but to meet
No Kiss no Hand
No special Words to say

This stone square
Gives room to a silent Bond between us
As 2 Dandelions in the middle of a private Yard so secretly
Amongst strangers, who Know

This moment will end
When we call it a day
The elevator silently serves
Another day in a haven of reaching Souls
This moment will end
When we call it a day
A soft touch and we find our own ways
Resonating this beautiful song

Modest gestures
Small unburdenings
Lay bare a neat structure
Brick by brick

Amongst strangers who know
I feel proud of her
I see pride in her eyes
In these rare moments we dare to cross Eyes

This day will but end
When He calls it a day
We'll rise as a soft glowing Star
Another light in the heavens of orbiting Souls
This day will but end
When He calls it a day
And we'll leave a still dimming Yard
Resonating this beautiful song

By your side

You're the sweetest taste in years and years. My Man
However...
I'm not available I told you so. Not yet.

Ever or Never
When Days go by in an endless chain
When the path starts stretching to a
Never nearing Horizon
Then Bold & Brave will turn against me
And Recklessness & Must Have are my realm...
Ever or Never
Ever or Never

So Woman
Read to me those last words please
True. Beep*, that secretary broad
What was I into with her!
Right, I was to abduct & conquer her
Free myself from her cocoon

So what's the deal
Creative as a God I will be
I'll send her in a labyrinth
- Right, Enchanted Woods, I recall -
The world unrolls from under her heart red polished nails
There I'll leave her to her fate
And clear her some paths unnoticed
Before she knows she'll end in
Let's say a glade
Why a glade I don't know
But life knows many wonders

And so this Child finally looks around and thinks:
Fuck, what an enchanting place this is
I'm deeply touched
I may want to cry. Tears of Happiness
Gosh Boop*
As if by magic I'm by Your side
I feel so great you held on to Us all those many years
In my infinite narrow-mindedness
I could not ever imagine
That it would feel so
Disarmingly full next to you
I really am incredibly happy to be with You
My Sweet Handsome Cool and Nice Man
I'm forever grateful!

Fancy that I really wanted to save you in the back of my drawer
And now I can lay my head on your firm chest
And in this oblique position I peek into the very depth of your left pocket and Meet face to face with that divine shining...
How shall I put that God-In-Heaven-Help-Me
All my words just drained away
... In short, all this fancy Gear...

By the way, you have a nice bum for a mature lady Beep
I pinned a nice photo to the inside of my skull
Each time I give up and wonder what to do with that Beep
I simply watch that pic and remember what I was going for You insanely filthy Crumpet

I feel the power throb in my veins again
Where that sprouts from I don't know
The moment I need God He is there
I should call on Him more often

Oh Boop*!

Oh Boop*! Please stop!
Don't hurt me with your lubricating stories
I won't slide in Please understand Nice Man!

Phase to Phase

In between Ever & Never
No man wants to be
In between Someone and Everyone
There is no distinction
No Individual no choice
No Beep* No Boop*

Please Beepielove*
The light in your eyes is gone
I'm but a shadow in your senses
I call upon your Soul
Open your Green eyes, it's me my heart Red love!

Come out of your world of Sorrow
I know how you feel
More than you will know
You left me sad and in pain

True, I cherish the pain
The Witness of our silent Touch
It paints the boundaries of our song
A stroke here A stroke there

Yes I do understand
I know the game
Its rules are Bitter though
And so I will heal, Unfortunately

But I don't understand His Work
Is our love but a Play
A neat structure for a next Stage
Or are we on different Floors

This is not the end my Friend
It is just a Phase
So sweet you understand - (I understand) -
It is just a Phase - (Phase to Phase) -

Oh Boop* please don't cry
Yes I'm on the 4th Floor, the 5th is Yours
So sweet you understand
